Biographical Sketch

Asian American Students in Alliance is the oldest Asian American organization at UIC, founded as a Pan-Asian organization in 1987. Other UIC Asian student organizations have transferred their membership to AASIA over the past two decades. They aim to increase Asian American awareness and address issues surrounding the Asian American community through cultural workshops, events, performances, services, and social gatherings. AASIA provides a place where you can learn more about Asian American identity and awareness. They also encourage and reward academic excellence as well as provide social and cultural activities for their members.
